

A LIST of the Honourable House of Commons, that Voted for, and against the Clause for the Hanover Succession in the Year 1702.

ON Wednesday, the 27th of January 1702. in the first Year of Her Majesty's Reign, the House of Commons pass'd a Bill, intituled, An Act for enlarging the time for taking the Oath of Abjuration, and also for recapacitating and indemnifying such Persons as have not taken the same by the time, and shall take the same by the time appointed; and the same Day sent it up to the Lords for their Concurrence.

On Tuesday the 9th of February following, the Lords return'd the said Bill with some Amendments, to which they desir'd the Commons Concurrence.

On Saturday the 31th of February, the House of Commons took into consideration the Amendments made by the Lords; the most material of which being a Clause for the further Security of the Protestant Succession in the illustrious House of Hanover, is here set down at length, and is as follows:

And for the further Security of Her Majesty's Person, and the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line, and for extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Pretenders, and their open and secret Abettors; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons, at any time after the first day of March 1702, shall endeavour to deprive or hinder any Person, who shall be the next in Succession to the Crown for the time being, according to the Limitations in an Act, intituled, An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and settling the Succession of the Crown, and according to one other Act, intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, from succeeding after the Decease of Majesty (whom God long preserve) to the Imperial Crown of this Realm, and the Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging, according to the Limitations in the before-mentioned Acts; that is to say, each Issue of Her Majesty's Body, as shall from time to time be next in Succession to the Crown, if it shall please God Almighty to bless Her Majesty with Issue, and during the time Her Majesty shall have no Issue, the Princess Sophia, Electress and Duchess Dowager of Hanover; and after the Decease of the said Princess Sophia, the next in Succession to the Crown for the time being, according to the Limitation of the said Acts; and the same maliciously, advisedly and directly shall attempt by any Overt Act or Deed: Every such Offence shall be adjudged High Treason, and the Offender or Offenders therein, their Abettors, Procurers and Comforters, knowing the said Offence to be done, being thereof convicted or a-tainted, according to the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, shall be deemed and adjudged Traytors, and shall suffer Pains of Death, and all Losses and Forfeitures, as in Cases of High Treason.

The other Amendments were, a Clause or Clauses to enact the Abjuration-Oath to be taken in Ireland in the same manner as in England, and to provide that no Person, who by reason of his neglect of taking the Oath, had forfeited his Office, &c. to which any other Person had been legally prefer'd, should be restor'd to the same, by any thing contain'd in the Act, as sent up the Lords.

After Debate, the Question being put for agreeing with the Lords in these Amendments, the House divided.
